

groups? It is the relationship one has or doesn't have with Christ Jesus the Savior. He is God the Son. He died on the cross of Calvary to pay the penalty of sin for all who trust Him as Savior.

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." (John 3:36)

Have you called out to Him with the following request?

"... God be merciful to me a sinner."
(Luke 18:13)

To contact us or
to see other articles by this author
please visit our web site at:

<http://www.lightingdarkness.com>
EMAIL: tnkpilgrim@lightingdarkness.com

groups? It is the relationship one has or doesn't have with Christ Jesus the Savior. He is God the Son. He died on the cross of Calvary to pay the penalty of sin for all who trust Him as Savior.

"He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life; and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him." (John 3:36)

Have you called out to Him with the following request?

"... God be merciful to me a sinner."
(Luke 18:13)

To contact us or
to see other articles by this author
please visit our web site at:

<http://www.lightingdarkness.com>
EMAIL: tnkpilgrim@lightingdarkness.com

PERMANENT ASSIGNMENT

© 2021 by Tom Boynton
(editing by Kathy Boynton)

PERMANENT ASSIGNMENT

© 2021 by Tom Boynton
(editing by Kathy Boynton)

As a young military officer, my superiors asked me to develop plans for subsequent assignments. Part of this planning involved thinking about what I'd like my final assignment to be. That seemed difficult to me because my final assignment seemed so far in the future. Besides that, I was acutely aware that my knowledge of unseen future events in life was severely limited. Since then, I have retired from the Air Force. My wife and I are increasing in age and what is yet to come seems increasingly important as the days pass.

After earthly careers are concluded and retirement enjoyments have passed, there is still a permanent assignment that each person must face. Scripture states it like this:

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.”
(Hebrews 9:27-28)

Most people spend much time planning for the events of this life. Even among us old people,

As a young military officer, my superiors asked me to develop plans for subsequent assignments. Part of this planning involved thinking about what I'd like my final assignment to be. That seemed difficult to me because my final assignment seemed so far in the future. Besides that, I was acutely aware that my knowledge of unseen future events in life was severely limited. Since then, I have retired from the Air Force. My wife and I are increasing in age and what is yet to come seems increasingly important as the days pass.

After earthly careers are concluded and retirement enjoyments have passed, there is still a permanent assignment that each person must face. Scripture states it like this:

“And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.”
(Hebrews 9:27-28)

Most people spend much time planning for the events of this life. Even among us old people,

I've met few who like to think about what comes next. They'd prefer to make plans for some new business adventure, vacation, world tour, or even reconstructive surgery. The judgment following death, which is inescapable and permanent, is seldom part of the discussion.

Are the years flying by and leaving you unprepared for your permanent end? There are only two groups into which all people shall be placed. Their outcomes are very different. One group shall experience a wonderful outcome as expressed by the following Scripture.

“Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:”
(Matthew 25:34)

The other group shall experience eternal horror.

“Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:” (Matthew 25:41)

What makes the difference between these two

I've met few who like to think about what comes next. They'd prefer to make plans for some new business adventure, vacation, world tour, or even reconstructive surgery. The judgment following death, which is inescapable and permanent, is seldom part of the discussion.

Are the years flying by and leaving you unprepared for your permanent end? There are only two groups into which all people shall be placed. Their outcomes are very different. One group shall experience a wonderful outcome as expressed by the following Scripture.

“Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:”
(Matthew 25:34)

The other group shall experience eternal horror.

“Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:” (Matthew 25:41)

What makes the difference between these two