BURNING

DARKNESS

Burning darkness; weight of anger from the one who says "I Am," stirs a cowering due to terror from the wrath of God The Lamb.
Oh such agony of the hopeless who cannot from torment flee causes them to scream in anguish throughout dark eternity.

Once in pleasure roamed these lost ones mindless of the coming doom.
They ignored the heavy judgment which "I Am" had said would come.
He whose presence floods all ages,
filling all eternity,
warned them, often, sending prophets which their blindness could not see.

These whose pain shall never soften shall continue with no hope.
Never can they be delivered as in endless fear they grope.
Those in torment fear God's presence.
He, the angry Lamb, is near.
Yet His presence brings no comfort;
just an ever growing fear.

Only God's own sovereign mercy planted faith in hearts once dead.
Now His chosen praise His glory and He is their living Head.
How they love the one who saved them and with Him caused them to sit.
On the Rock their feet are standing, since He drew them from the pit.

But the lost know only anger, as the Lamb His terror brings on the wicked, while His saved ones of His glory ever sing.

"And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: For the great day of his wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?"
